“Dogspirit” by Gary Paulsen, text copyright c1991 by Gary Paulsen.

4

Contrast the reason the narrator gives for why the dogs slept “packed all around” him to that of what others might believe. Use details and information from the article in your answer.

5

The narrator describes the Iditarod as an experience that permanently changes everyone who runs it. Describe two of these changes. Use details and information from the article in your answer.

1.

6

Explain what the narrator means when he says that as a result of training and racing, “there is just the team.” Use details and information from the article in your explanation.

8

Think about the way the characters in both “Under the Rice Moon” and “Dogspirit” treated animals. In the space below, construct a graphic organizer that shows how they are similar and how they are different. Use details and information from the passages in your answer.

Your graphic organizer may be a chart, graph, diagram, drawing, cluster, web, mind map, or other organizer you feel is appropriate. Be sure to label your graphic organizer appropriately.

WRITING

Directions

Read the prompt in the box below.

Imagine that you have won an all-expenses-paid trip anywhere in the world. Write a paper about where you would go and what you would do there.

Use the space below for your prewriting activity (such as brainstorming, listing, freewriting, clustering, mapping, or drawing). You should use the prewriting activity that you usually use to plan your writing. Your work on this page will not be scored.

Directions

Now you have time to revise your draft. Reread your draft and think about the Writer's Checklist below. Check every box that makes a true statement about your draft.

Writer's Checklist

- ☐ My paper has a clear beginning, a middle, and an end.
- ☐ My paper stays on the topic.
- ☐ My paper flows smoothly from one idea to another.
- ☐ My paper includes details and examples.
- ☐ My paper includes a variety of sentence structures.
- ☐ My paper includes correct grammar/usage, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling.

For every box you did not check, make the necessary revisions on your draft before you write your final copy on Pages 9 through 12.

Content Standard(s): CA3

Process Standard(s): 3.5

Item 4:

Contrast the reason the narrator gives for why the dogs slept “packed all around” him to that of what others might believe. Use details and information from the article in your answer.

Example(s) of Top Score Point Response:

The narrator believes that the dogs slept near him because of the close bond they shared. He believes that the dogs were trying to save his life. Others may believe that it was only a matter of luck, that there was no reason for them sleeping so close.

Score Points:

- 2 points Response is a complete and reasonable contrast of the narrator’s belief as to why the dogs slept near him to what others might believe and uses details and information from the article as support
- 1 point Response is essentially correct and text-based but includes an overly general and/or simplistic contrast of the narrator’s belief as to why the dogs slept near him to what others might believe OR response includes ONLY “one-sided” reasoning, without the contrasting view (i.e., “The narrator believes that the dogs slept near him because they wanted to save him.”)
- 0 points Other

Score Points

- 2 points The response demonstrates that the student has a complete understanding of the communications concept embodied in the task. The student has provided a response that is accurate, complete, and fulfills all the requirements of the task. All necessary support and/or examples are included, and the information given is clearly text-based. Any extensions beyond the text are relevant to the task.
- 1 point The response demonstrates that the student has a partial understanding of the communications concept embodied in the task. The student has provided a response that may include information that is essentially correct and text-based, but the information is too general or too simplistic. Some of the support and/or examples may be incomplete or omitted.
- 0 points The response is inaccurate, confused, and/or irrelevant, or the student failed to respond to the task.

Content Standard(s): CA3

Process Standard(s): 3.5

Item 5:

The narrator describes the Iditarod as an experience which permanently changes everyone who runs it. Describe two of these changes. Use details and information from the article in your answer.

Example(s) of Top Score Point Response:

- Any person who has done the race will miss the race and the dogs, and cannot look at another horizon, sunset, or ocean without thinking of the race and comparing the present experience to the race.

Other acceptable responses that may be part of the student's answer may potentially include:

- A person cannot look at nature again without being reminded of the race.
- A person learns about the bond between humans and dogs.
- The narrator finds it hard to be a part of society, i.e., doesn't want journey to end; doesn't want to go home.

Score Points:

- 2 points Response is a complete and reasonable description of two appropriate personal changes and uses details and information from the article as support
- 1 point Response is essentially correct and text-based but includes an overly general and/or simplistic description of two appropriate personal changes OR response describes ONLY one appropriate personal change using details and information from the article as support
- 0 points Other
